3. SECURITY DEPOSIT

- A. At the time of You signing this Lease, You are required to give Owner a security deposit in the sum of $2,395.00, which is equal to one month's rent. Owner will deposit this security in HSBC ("bank") at 1 HSBC CENTER, BUFFALO, NY 14203. If You carry out all of Your obligations under the terms of this Lease, at the end of each calendar year, the Bank will make an annual payment of accrued interest to You, less 1% interest of the security on deposit, which the Bank tenders to Owner for administrative costs.
- B. If this Lease is renewed, and the amount of rent is increased, the security deposit Owner is permitted to retain must also be increased to equal one month's rent. You shall, upon signing such lease renewal, pay to the order of Owner such additional sum.
- C. Owner may use or apply all or any part of the deposit as may be required to pay for damage to the Apartment during the term of this lease. You shall not use the security deposit to pay the last month's rent of the lease term. Owner may use the security deposit in full or in part if necessary to pay for unpaid rent, damage or loss due to re-renting over the course of this Lease.
- D. If you carry out all of your agreements in this Lease and if You move out of the Apartment and return it to Owner in the same condition it was in when You first occupied it, except for ordinary wear and tear or damage caused by fire or other casualty, Owner will return to You the full amount of the Security Deposit and interest where applicable, within fourteen (14) days after the later of (i) the date this Lease ends, or (ii) the date You vacate the Apartment.

However, if You are in default of Your obligations under this Lease and/or there are any damages to the Apartment beyond ordinary wear and tear or damage caused by fire or other casualty, Owner may keep all or part of the Security Deposit to cover missed rent payments, other losses or expenses incurred and reasonable repairs of such damage and Owner shall provide You with an itemized statement indicating the basis for the amount of Security Deposit retained within the aforementioned fourteen (14) day period. If Owner sells or leases the building, Owner will turn over your security, with interest, wither to You or to the person buying or leasing (lessee) the building within five (5) days after the sale or lease. Owner will notify You, by registered or certified mail, of the name and address of the person or company to whom the deposit has been turned over. In such case, Owner will have no further responsibility to You for the security deposit. The new owner or lessee will become responsible to You for the security deposit.

- E. If You carry out all of Your obligations under this Lease, and if the Apartment is returned to Owner at the expiration of the Lease term in the same condition as when rented by You, ordinary wear and tear excepted, Your security deposit will be returned in full to You, with the accrued interest for the calendar year, within 60 days of You moving out. If Owner sells or leases the Building, Owner may remit the security deposit, as provided by law, to You or to the new owner or lessee, at Owner's election. If Owner remits the security deposit to the new owner or lessee, You agree to seek the return of the security deposit from the new owner or lessee, and release Owner from any claim to the security deposit.

4. USE AND OCCUPANCY OF THE APARTMENT

The Apartment is to be used and occupied for private residential purposes only, as your primary residence. The Apartment may be occupied only by You, your immediate family or other occupants in accordance with the applicable provisions of law. You agree that the Apartment will be occupied by You and the occupants listed in paragraph 1. You are obligated to advise Owner, in writing, if any additional occupant moves into the Apartment. Such notice must be furnished by You to Owner within 10 days of the date such additional occupant moves into the Apartment. The Apartment may not be occupied by more than the number of occupants permitted by §27-2075 of the Housing Maintenance Code. The Apartment may be occupied by one roommate.

5. RENT, ADDED RENT, RENT ADJUSTMENTS:

- A. Your monthly rent for the Apartment is $2,395.00. Rent payments for each month are due on or before the first day of each month at the address above or at a location designated by Owner in writing. Notice from Owner to You is not required. The rent must be paid in full without deductions. [Owner will allocate your rent payment, as it deems fit]. You must pay the first month's rent to Owner when You sign this Lease. If the Lease begins after the first day of the month when you sign it, You must pay Owner (1) the part of the rent from the beginning date of this Lease until the last day of the month and (2) the full rent for the next full calendar month. You will pay the rent as it shall become due, without any deductions, unless permitted by law.
- B. You may be required to pay other charges and fees to Owner under the terms of this Lease. These other charges shall be deemed "additional rent." This additional rent will be payable as rent, together with the next monthly rent due. If You fail to pay the additional rent on time, Owner shall have the same rights against You as if You failed to pay rent.
- C. If this Lease is for a Rent Stabilized apartment, the rent shall be adjusted up or down during the Lease term, including retroactively, to conform to the Rent Guidelines. Where Owner, upon application to the State Division of Housing and Community Renewal ("authorized agency") is found to be entitled to an increase in rent or other relief, You and Owner agree: a. to be bound by such determination; b. where the authorized agency has granted an increase in rent, You shall pay such an increase in the manner set forth by the authorized agency; c. except that in the event that an order is issued increasing the stabilization rent because of Owner hardship, You may, within thirty (30) days of your receipt of a copy of the order, cancel your lease on sixty (60) days written notice to Owner. During said period You may continue in occupancy at no increase in rent.
- D. Since this Apartment is subject to the rent stabilization laws, the rent and any surcharges to be paid during the term of this lease may be adjusted, prospectively or retroactively, pursuant to an order or directive of the New York State Division of Housing and Community Renewal (DHCR). You agree to be bound by such determination, and to pay any increase in rent in the manner specified by the agency. In the event the applicable rent guidelines have not been fixed by the Rent Guidelines Board (RGB) by the date the lease is executed, the rent provided for in this Lease may be increased or decreased retroactively to the commencement date of the Lease consistent with orders issued by the RGB.

6. FAILURE TO PAY RENT ON DUE DATE:

Rent is due by the first day of each month. You acknowledge and understand that Owner is not required to send you an invoice reminding you of this obligation. Payment after the 5th day of each month shall be considered a "late payment." You expressly agree and understand that three (3) or more late payments in any twelve-month period shall be deemed a failure to comply with a substantial obligation of this lease and be grounds for the termination of this lease and eviction of You by Owner.

7. FEE FOR LATE PAYMENT:

Pursuant to Real Property Law Section 238-a(2), You shall be obligated to pay a late fee if payment of rent has not been received within five (5) days of the first of each month. Late fee shall be lesser of $50.00 or five percent of the monthly rent in addition to legal interest at the maximum amount allowable at law. You will also be liable to pay all bank fees and charges for any check which is dishonored or returned.

8. DISHONORED CHECK FEE:

If You pay rent by check and such check is dishonored for any reason by the bank on which the check is drawn, You will be responsible to pay Owner a dishonored check fee of $15.00 in addition to the fee for late payment. This fee is additional rent.

9. IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO MOVE IN

A situation could arise which might prevent Owner from letting You move into the Apartment on the beginning date set in this Lease. If this happens for reasons beyond Owner's reasonable control, Owner will not be responsible for Your damages or expenses, and this Lease will remain in effect. You will not have to pay rent until the move-in date Owner gives You by notice, or the date You move in, whichever is earlier. If Owner does not give You notice that the move-in date is within 30 days after the beginning date of the term of this Lease as stated in Article 2, You may tell Owner, in writing, that Owner has 15 additional days, then the Lease is ended. Any money paid by You on account of this Lease will then be refunded promptly by Owner.

10. CHANGES AND ALTERATIONS TO YOUR APARTMENT; CARE OF YOUR APARTMENT

- A. You will take good care of the Apartment and will not permit or do any damage to it, except for damage, which occurs through ordinary wear and tear. You cannot build in, add to change or alter the Apartment in any way, including but not limited to, painting or chemically treating, or decorating with any covering the kitchen cabinets, bathroom tile, or exposed brick walls, or scraping, staining or refinishing any floors. - B. You are responsible for the proper care and maintenance of the Apartment. You must, at your sole cost and expense, repair or replace anything in the Apartment requiring repair or replacement as a result of your negligence. You will reimburse Owner all costs incurred by Owner to remedy any damages to the Apartment or the Building caused by you, your guests, occupants or roommates that is not deemed normal wear and tear. Such sum shall be added rent.

- C. If You know of or discover any problems in your Apartment, You agree that you will give the Owner written notice of the problem, at the address for notices set forth in paragraph 1, unless it is an emergency. If it is an emergency, You agree to call the superintendent or Manhattan Skyline Management Corporation at (212) 977-4800.

Please be sure that as of the date of your move-out you have disconnected all phone and utility services, terminated all newspaper and magazine subscriptions and sent the post office a change of address form.
- B. If You decide to move out, You should notify Owner in writing that you are moving out. When You move out, You must leave the Apartment in the same condition, as it was in when You moved in, except for normal wear and tear. - E. If after the Lease term ends, You have not properly moved out, Owner may either treat You as still in occupancy and charge you for use, or may consider that you have abandoned the Apartment and any property remaining in the Apartment. If the Owner treats You as still in occupancy, Owner will commence a legal action called a holdover proceeding to regain possession of the Apartment. If the Owner treats You as having abandoned your property Owner may discard the property or store it at your expense. You agree to pay Owner for all costs and expenses incurred in removing or storing such property. The provisions of this article will continue to be in effect after the end of this Lease and will continue to have effect until You have properly moved out.

Notice of all additional rules shall be delivered to You in writing or posted in the lobby or other public place in the Building. Owner shall not be responsible to You for not enforcing any rules, regulations or provisions of another tenant's lease except to the extent required by law.
- C. Your Responsibility. You are responsible for the behavior of yourself, of your immediate family, your servants and people who are visiting You. You will reimburse Owner as additional rent upon demand for the cost of all losses, damages, fines and reasonable legal expenses incurred by Owner because of You, members of your immediate family, servants, or people visiting You have not obeyed government laws and orders of the agreements or rules of this Lease.
- D. Recycling and Environmental Protection. You agree to comply with all government laws and orders regarding recycling and environmental protection. If, because of Your failure to comply with any governmental law or order, Owner is put to any expense whatsoever, including, without limitation, any fine or penalty imposed by any governmental authority, You will pay Owner the amount of any such expense as additional rent. TENANT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR SEPARATION OF RECYCLABLES AND TRASH. Tenant agrees at his sole cost and expense to comply with all present and future laws, orders and regulations of all state, federal, municipal and local governments, departments commissions and boards regarding the collection, sorting, separation, and recycling of waste products, garbage, refuse and trash into such categories as provided by law, and in accordance with the Rules and Regulations adopted by Owner for the sorting and separation of such designated recyclable materials. Owner reserves the right where permitted by law, to refuse to collect or accept from tenant any waste products, garbage, refuse or trash which is not separated and sorted as required by law. Where permitted by law Owner reserves the right to require Tenant to arrange for such collection at Tenant's sole cost and expense, utilizing a contractor satisfactory to Owner. Tenant shall pay all costs, expenses, fines, penalties, or damages which may be imposed on Owner or Tenant by reason of Tenant's failure to comply with the provisions of this Paragraph, and, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, Tenant shall indemnify, defend and hold Owner harmless (including legal fees and expenses) from and against any actions, claims, and suits arising from such Tenant non-compliance, utilizing counsel reasonably satisfactory to Owner, if Owner so elects. Tenant's failure to comply with this Paragraph shall constitute a violation of a substantial obligation of the tenancy, local statute, and Owner's rules and regulations. Tenant shall be liable to Owner for any costs, expenses, or disbursements, including attorney's fees, incurred by Owner in the commencement and/or prosecution of any action or proceedings by Owner against Tenant, predicated upon Tenant's breach of this Paragraph.

Any condition caused by Your misconduct or the misconduct of anyone under Your direction or control shall not be a breach by Owner.

13. OBJECTIONABLE CONDUCT

As a tenant in the Building, You will not engage in objectionable conduct. Objectionable conduct means behavior which makes or will make the Apartment or the Building less fit to live in for You or other occupants. It also means anything which interferes with the right of others to properly and peacefully enjoy their apartments, or causes conditions that are dangerous, hazardous unsanitary and detrimental to other tenants in the Building. Objectionable conduct by You gives Owner the right to end this Lease. You shall not make or permit any disturbing noises in the Apartment or Building or permit anything to be done that will interfere with the rights, comfort or convenience of other tenants. You shall not play a musical instrument or operate or allow to be operated audio or video equipment so as to disturb or annoy any other occupant of the Building.

You are not entitled to any rent reduction because of a stoppage or reduction of any of the above services unless it is provided by law.
- B. Gas. Gas is included in the rent unless You are directly metered for gas.
- C. Electricity. It is expressly understood and agreed that Owner shall not supply electrical utilities or service to the Apartment. Tenant shall make its own arrangements with the public utility company servicing the Apartment for the furnishing of and payment of all charges for electricity. Interruption or curtailment of any such service shall not constitute a constructive or partial eviction or entitle Tenant to any compensation or abatement of rent. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that in the event the Owner elects to install separate meters for electricity, then the rent for the Apartment SHALL NOT include electricity, and no adjustments will be made. Tenant shall then agree to pay for the cost of all electricity consumed by Tenant in the Apartment including, but not limited to, electric charges for the operation of the heating and air conditioning systems. Owner or its agent makes no representations as to the cost of such electric charges.
- D. Appliances. Appliances supplied by Owner in the Apartment are for your use. They will be maintained and repaired by Owner, but if repairs or replacement are made necessary because of your negligence or misuse, You will pay Owner for the cost of such repair or replacement as additional rent. Enclosed air-conditioning units have been installed in the Apartment. These units are individually operated and have been connected to the Your electric meter. Tenant will be responsible for the electric charges but the Owner will be responsible for the maintenance of the equipment unless damaged by the fault or negligence of Tenant or Tenant's guests, servants or invitees. Tenant shall not be permitted to install any other air-conditioning equipment in the Apartment nor shall Owner be responsible for any damages nor shall Tenant be entitled to an abatement of rent due to the removal of or breakdown of the equipment.
- E. Elevator Service. If the elevator is the kind that requires an employee of Owner to operate it, Owner may end this service without reducing the rent if: (1) Owner gives you 10 days notice that this service will end; and (2) within a reasonable time after the end of this 10-day notice, Owner begins to substitute an automatic control type of elevator and proceeds diligently with its installation.
- F. Storeroom Use. If Owner permits you to use any storeroom or any other facility located in the Building but outside of the Apartment, the use of this storeroom or facility will be furnished to you free of charge and at your own risk, except for loss suffered by you due to Owner's negligence. You will operate at your expense any coin operated appliances located in such storerooms or laundries.
- G. Laundry Facilities. If Owner permits You to use any laundry located in the Building, but outside of the Apartment (except as otherwise stated in this Lease), the use of any of the laundry facilities will be furnished to You at Your own risk, except for loss suffered by You due to Owner's negligence. You will operate at Your expense any coin operated appliances located in any such laundry facilities. Owner has no obligation to You to provide laundry or any other facility and Owner may discontinue such service at any time.
- H. Smoke/Carbon Monoxide Detector. If Owner has or hereafter shall install one or more combination smoke/carbon monoxide detectors in the Apartment, it is understood that Owner shall not be responsible for any servicing or maintenance of the smoke/carbon monoxide detector, including, but not limited to, replacement of batteries, if applicable, except as provided by applicable law or statute. If a smoke/carbon monoxide detector has been installed in the Apartment, You acknowledge that You have inspected it and that it is in good working order. You shall be liable to Owner for any damage resulting from your failure to keep it in good working order. Owner shall not be liable for any damage caused by the failure of such smoke/carbon monoxide detector to operate properly.
- I. Security Systems. (1) You acknowledge that the Owner makes no representation and assumes no responsibility whatsoever with respect to the functioning or operation of any of the human or mechanical security systems which the Owner does or may provide, including, without limitation, desk person, lobby attendants, or TV monitoring. You agree that the Owner shall not be responsible or liable for any bodily harm or property loss or damage of any kind or nature which You or any members of Your family, employees or guest may suffer or incur by reason of any claim that the Owner, its agents or employees or any mechanical or electronic system in the Building has been negligent or has not functioned properly or that some other or additional security measure or system could have prevented the bodily harm or property loss or damage and (2) if You install a security system, the Owner shall not be responsible for the maintenance of same. Neither the superintendent nor the Owner nor any of its employees shall be responsible for responding to any alarm or security alert.

- J. Terrace and Balconies. (1) The Apartment may have a terrace or balcony. Neither the terrace nor balcony is part of the Apartment. However, you may use the terrace or balcony during your lease period. Your use of either the terrace or balcony shall be governed by the terms of this Lease. Owner may make special rules regarding the use of the terrace and balcony. Owner will notify You of such rules and Your failure to comply with such rules shall constitute a substantial violation of this Lease; and (2) You must keep the terrace or balcony clean and free from snow, ice, leaves, garbage or any other refuse. You shall keep all screens and drains in good repair. No cooking with gas or charcoal grills is allowed on the terrace or balcony. You shall not store or place any baby carriages, bicycles or any other property, other than terrace/balcony furniture on the terrace or balcony. You may not keep or install a fence or make any changes or additions to the terrace or balcony. Installation of furniture and plants requires prior approval of Owner. If You do so without Owner's permission, Owner has the right but shall not be obligated to remove these items and store them at Your expense; and (3) During reasonable hours and with reasonable notice, except in emergencies, Owner may enter the Terrace or Balcony to make any necessary repairs or changes Owner deems necessary. With reasonable notice, Owner may also deny You access and use to the Terrace or Balcony to make any necessary repairs to the Building or changes to the Building the Owner deems necessary. Your rent will not be reduced while your use of the terrace or balcony is prohibited or restricted because of this work.
- K. Recreational Facilities. The use of any swimming pool, health club, sun deck or other recreational facilities located in the Building of which the Apartment forms a part is restricted to those persons (including members of the general public) maintaining a paid-up membership acceptable to Owner or the health club operator. At Owner's option, membership shall be available on a first-come, first-served basis.

15. OWNER'S INABILITY TO PROVIDE SERVICES

If Owner is unable to provide certain services as a result of circumstances which are not the fault of Owner, including but not limited to a strike, labor, trouble, national emergency, repairs, or any other cause beyond Owner's reasonable control, Your obligations under this Lease, including the obligations to pay rent without abatement, shall remain in effect. In any of these events, any rights You may have against Owner are only those rights which are allowed by laws that are in effect when the reduction in service occurs. Owner is not required to provide any service besides those specifically written in this Lease.

16. ENTRY TO APARTMENT

During reasonable hours and with reasonable notice, except in emergencies, Owner may enter the Apartment for the following reasons:

- A. To erect, use and maintain pipes and conduit in and through the walls and ceilings of the Apartment; to inspect the Apartment and to make any necessary repairs or changes Owner decides are necessary. Your rent will not be reduced because of any of this work, unless required by Law;
- B. To show Apartment to persons who may wish to become owners or lessees of the entire Building or may be interested in lending money to Owner;
- C. For four months before the end of the Lease, to show the Apartment to persons who may wish to rent it;
- D. If, during the last month of the Lease, You have moved out and removed all or almost all of your property from the Apartment, Owner may enter to make changes, repairs, or redecorations. Your rent will not be reduced for that month and this Lease will not be ended by Owner's entry;
- E. If at any time You are not personally present to permit Owner or Owner's representative to enter the Apartment and entry is necessary or allowed by law or under this lease, Owner or Owner's representatives may nevertheless enter the Apartment. Owner may enter by force in an emergency. Owner will not be responsible to You, unless during this entry, Owner or Owner's representative is negligent or misuses your property;
- F. If Owner enters the Apartment, Owner will try not to disturb You. Owner may keep all equipment necessary to make repairs or alterations to the Apartment in the Apartment. Owner is not responsible for disturbance or damage to You because of performing work or keeping the equipment in the Apartment. Owner's use of the Apartment does not give You a claim of eviction. Owner may enter the Apartment to get to any part of the Apartment or Building.

G. Failure to provide access is a substantial violation of this Lease.

17. ASSIGNING; SUBLETTING; ABANDONMENT

A. Assigning and Subletting. You cannot assign this Lease or sublet the Apartment without Owner's advance written consent in each instance. Owner may refuse to consent to a lease assignment for any reason or no reason. The first and every other time You wish to sublet the Apartment, You must get the written consent of Owner. Owner may impose a reasonable processing fee including but not limited to a credit check fee on You in connection with an application to assign or sublet. If You fail to pay Your rent, Owner may collect rent from subtenant or occupant without releasing You from the Lease. Owner will credit the amount collected against the rent due from You. However, Owner's acceptance of such rent does not change the status of the subtenant or occupant to that of direct tenant of Owner and does not release You from this Lease. In the event of an unauthorized assignment or sublease, the Owner shall be entitled to collect the rent from the occupant in the same manner as from You, the Tenant. Such acceptance shall not be deemed consent to the assignment or sublease. You shall remain liable under this Lease after a sublease or assignment unless You are released in writing by the Owner. You may not request to sublet the Apartment to any other tenant at the Building.

B. Abandonment. The removal of all or substantial part of Your furniture from the Apartment or any other indications that the Apartment has been vacated shall be deemed an abandonment by You and Owner may then re-enter and take possession of the Apartment, repair and redecorate it for the purpose of re-renting, whether or not You has surrendered the keys. Such taking by Owner shall not be deemed to relieve You from liability to pay the rent. You releases Owner from any and all claims for damages by reason of such re-entry. If you move out of the Apartment (abandonment) before the end of this Lease without the consent of Owner, this Lease will not be ended. You will remain responsible for each monthly payment of rent as it becomes due until the end of this Lease. You will remain responsible for each monthly payment of rent as it becomes due until the end of the Lease subject to real Property Law §227-e. In case of abandonment, your responsibility for rent will end only if Owner chooses to end this Lease for default as provided in Article 17.

18. DEFAULT

(1) You default under the Lease if You act in any of the following ways

- (a) You fail to carry out any agreement or provision of this Lease;
- (b) You or another occupant of the Apartment behaves in an objectionable manner;
- (c) You do not take possession or move into the Apartment 15 days after the beginning of this Lease;
- (d) You and other legal occupants of the Apartment move out permanently before this Lease ends.

If You do default in any one of these ways, other than a default in the agreement to pay rent, Owner may serve You with a written notice to stop or correct the specified default within 10 days and continue to do all that is necessary to correct the default as soon as possible.

(2) If You do not stop or begin to correct a default within 10 days, Owner may give You a second written notice that this Lease will end six days after the date the second written notice is sent to You. At the end of the 7-day period, your rights under this Lease will end. You then must move out of the Apartment. You must then either stop or correct the default within 10 days, or, if You need more than 10 days, You must begin to correct the default within 10 days and continue to do all that is necessary to correct the default as soon as possible. You will remain liable to Owner for unpaid rent up to the expiration date of this Lease, the value of your occupancy, and damages caused to Owner after that time as stated in Article 18.

(3) If You do not pay your rent when this Lease requires, Owner or Owner's agent shall send you by certified mail a written notice stating the Owner or Owner's agent did not receive payment for rent within five (5) days of the date specified in the Lease. This does not waive, impair or modify Your obligation to pay rent by the first day of each month. If You fail to pay Owner the rent as demanded in fourteen (14) days statutory written rent demand, Owner may commence an action or summary nonpayment eviction proceeding based upon the non-payment of rent.

Once this Lease has been ended, whether because of default or otherwise, You give up any right You might otherwise have to reinstate or renew the Lease.

- (4) If Your application for the Apartment contains any misrepresentations or false statements, this will be a non-curable default, and Owner may terminate this Lease on three (3) days notice. At the end of the three-day period, this Lease will end. You must then move out of the Apartment.
- (5) Any payment received after the 5th of the month shall be subject to a late charge of $50.00 for administrative handling and expenses. Said payment shall be due and payable upon demand and is considered additional rent.
- (6) If (i) You assign property for the benefit of creditors or (ii) You file a voluntary petition or an involuntary petition is filed against You under any bankruptcy or insolvency law or (iii) a trustee or receiver of You or Your property is appointed, Owner may give you thirty (30) days notice of cancellation of the Term of this Lease. If any of the above is not fully dismissed within the thirty (30) day period, the Term shall end as of the date stated in the notice. You must continue to pay rent, damages, losses and expenses without offset.
- (7) In the event You do not comply with any obligations of this lease, create a nuisance, engage in conduct detrimental to the safety of other renters, intentionally damage the property, or disturb other tenants, then Owner may terminate the tenancy and lease upon ten days written notice to You. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Owner shall not be required to give preliminary notice to You prior to initiating a summary proceeding except such notice as may be required by law.
- (8) You acknowledge that the Apartment is located in a high/first-class residential Building and the Apartment is being rented to Tenant for residential purposes only. Tenant represents that it shall not use the Apartment for commercial and/or office uses of any nature whatsoever. The provisions of this Article are a material inducement to the Owner for the execution of this Lease and any default by Tenant under this Article shall be deemed a material default entitling Owner to exercise any or all of the remedies as provided in this Lease.

19. REMEDIES OF OWNER AND YOUR LIABILITY

A. If Owner ends your rights under this Lease because of your default, the following are the rights and obligations of You and Owner.

- (a) You must pay your rent until this Lease has ended. Thereafter, You must pay an equal amount for what the law calls "use and occupancy" until You actually move out.
- (b) Once You are out, Owner may re-rent the Apartment or any portion of it for a period of time which may end before or after the ending date of this Lease. Owner may re-rent to a new tenant at a lesser rent or may charge a higher rent than the rent in this Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if You vacate the Apartment in violation of the terms of this Lease, only then shall Owner use reasonable efforts to re-rent the Apartment at the lesser of the fair market value of the Apartment or rent paid under this Lease pursuant to Real Property Law §227-e.
- (c) Whether the Apartment is re-rented or not, You must pay to Owner as damages:
 - (1) the difference between the rent in this Lease and the amount, if any, of the rents collected in any later lease or leases of the Apartment for what would have been the remaining period of this Lease except to the extent limited by Real Property Law §227-c if applicable; and
 - (2) Owner's expenses for advertisements, broker's fees, and the cost of putting the Apartment in good condition for re-rental, and
 - (3) Owner's expenses for attorney's fees except in the event of a default judgement.
- (d) You shall pay all damages due in monthly installments on the rent day established in this Lease. Any legal action brought to collect one or more monthly installments of damages shall not prejudice in any way Owner's right to collect the damages for a later month by a similar action. If the rent collected by Owner from a subsequent tenant of the Apartment is more than the unpaid rent and damages which You owe Owner, You cannot receive the difference. Owner's failure to re-rent to another tenant will not release or change your liability for damages, unless the failure is due to Owner's deliberate inaction.

B. If this Lease is terminated as set forth in paragraph "8," You must pay "use and occupancy" until You vacate the Apartment. If You vacate the Apartment prior to the expiration of the lease term, You shall be liable for "use and occupancy" until the expiration of the lease term or until such time as the Apartment is re-rented, whichever is sooner. After You vacates, Owner may re-rent the Apartment for the remainder of the lease term, or for a period shorter than or greater than the monthly rental specified on page one of this lease. If the Apartment is re-rented for less than the monthly rental specified above, You shall be liable for the difference between Your monthly rent and the new rental amount, until such time as the balance of the term of this lease expires. In addition, You shall be liable for all expenses incurred in connection with the re-renting of the Apartment, including but not limited to attorney's fees, collection fees, advertisements, broker's fees and the cost of putting the Apartment in good condition for re-rental.

(1) If the rent collected by Owner from a subsequent tenant of the Apartment is more than the unpaid rent and damages which You owe Owner, You cannot receive the difference. Owner's failure to re-rent to another tenant will not release or change your liability for damages, unless the failure is due to Owner's deliberate inaction.

C. LEGAL FEES:

In the event either Owner or You incur legal fees and/or court costs in the enforcement of any of Owner's or Your rights under this Lease or pursuant to law, neither party shall be entitled to the repayment of such legal fees and/or courts. You shall pay all damages due in monthly installments on the rent day established in this Lease. Any legal action brought to collect one or more monthly installments of damages shall not prejudice in any way Owner's right to collect the damages for a later month by a similar action.

If the above box is not checked, You shall be liable to Owner in the event Owner incur legal fees in the enforcement of any of Your rights under this Lease or pursuant to law. You shall be liable to Owner for such legal fees and/or court costs as added rent.

20. ADDITIONAL OWNER REMEDIES

If You do not do everything You have agreed to do, or if You do anything which shows that You intend not to do what have agreed to do, Owner has the right to ask a Court to make You carry out your agreement or to give to give the Owner such other relief as the Court can provide. This is in addition to the remedies in Article 17 and 18 of this lease.

Such fees include but are not limited to fee charged by the collection company, any interest fees, charges or expenses added to the principal balance before the transfer or assignment of the debt to a collection company.
- (8) All other fees and expenses incurred by Owner because of your failure to obey any other provisions and agreements of this Lease;
- (9) THESE FEES AND EXPENSES SHALL BE PAID BY YOU TO OWNER AS ADDITIONAL RENT WITHIN 30 DAYS AFTER YOU RECEIVE OWNER'S BILL OR STATEMENT. IF THIS LEASE HAS ENDED WHEN THESE FEES AND EXPENSES ARE INCURRED, YOU WILL STILL BE LIABLE TO OWNER FOR THE SAME AMOUNT AS DAMAGES.

B. Tenant's Right. Owner agrees that unless subparagraph (5) of this article 21 has been stricken out of this Lease You have the right to collect reasonable fees and expenses incurred in a successful defense by You of a lawsuit brought by Owner against You or brought by You against Owner to the extent provided by Real Property Law, section 234.

Owner will not be liable for any such interference on a permanent basis caused by the permanent closing, darkening or blocking up of windows, if such action is required by law. None of the foregoing events will cause a suspension or reduction of the rent or allow You to cancel the Lease.

A. It is expressly understood and agreed that this instrument cannot be changed orally.

B. All walls and floors are to be left, upon termination of this Lease for any reason whatsoever, in the same condition in which they were received, reasonable wear and tear excepted. Prior to the termination or cancellation of this Lease, Tenant shall, at his own cost and expense, remove any wall covering, bookcases, cabinets, mirrors, painted murals, or any other wall attachments Tenant, or previous Tenant may have installed, make any necessary repairs and leave the walls in their typical condition and prime paint. H. Addendum to Article 18: Assignment/Subletting

No such consent to any such subletting or assignment shall be construed as permitting any further subletting or assignment, or as a waiver of tenant's continued liability under this Lease. It is expressly understood and agreed that the proposed sub-tenant or assignee shall not take occupancy of the premises until written approval from the Landlord is obtained. Smoke-Free Lease Addendum

Tenant and all members of Tenant's family or household and occupants, are parties to a written lease with Landlord (the, "Lease"). This addendum states the following additional terms, conditions, and rules which are hereby incorporated into the lease.

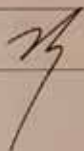

1. Purpose of No-Smoking Policy. The parties desire to mitigate (i) the irritation and known health risks from secondhand smoke; (ii) the increased maintenance, cleaning, and redecorating costs from smoking; and (iii) the increased risk of fire from smoking.
2. Definition of Smoking. The term "smoking" means inhaling, exhaling, breathing, or carrying any lighted cigar, cigarette, or other tobacco product or similar lighted product in any manner or in any form. This includes "electronic cigarettes" meaning any electronic device that provides a vapor of liquid nicotine and/or other substances to the user. This term shall include, but is not limited to, such devices whether they are manufactured or referred to as, "e-cigarettes", "e-cigars", and "e-pipes".
3. Smoke-Free Complex. Tenant agrees and acknowledges that the premises to be occupied by Tenant and members of Tenant's household have been designated as a smoke-free living environment. Tenant and members of Tenant's household shall not smoke anywhere in the unit rented by Tenant, or the building where the tenant's dwelling is located or in any of the common areas or adjoining grounds of such building nor shall Tenant permit any guests or visitors under the control of Tenant to do so.
4. Landlord to Promote No-Smoking Policy. Landlord shall post no-smoking and/or smoke free signs at entrances and exits, common areas, hallways, and in conspicuous places in the building.
5. Landlord not a guarantor of smoke-free environment. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord's adoption of a smoke-free living environment, and the efforts to designate the building and the immediate adjoining areas as smoke-free, do not make the Landlord or any of its managing agents the guarantor of Tenant's health or of the smoke-free condition of the Tenant's unit and the common areas. However, Landlord shall take reasonable steps to enforce the smoke-free terms of its leases. Landlord is not required to take steps in response to smoking unless Landlord is put on notice of the presence of smoking, via agent, personal knowledge, and/or written notice by a Tenant. Tenant understands that this being a new policy, the subject building is transitioning to Non-smoking status.

6. Effect of Breach and Right to Terminate Lease. A breach of this Addendum by the Tenant shall be a material breach of the lease and grounds for immediate termination of the Lease by the Landlord.
7. Disclaimer by Landlord. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord's adoption of a smoke-free living environment, and the efforts to designate the building as smoke-free, does not in any way change the standard of care that the Landlord or managing agent would have to a Tenant household to render buildings and premises designated as smoke-free any safer, more habitable, or improved in terms of air quality standards than any other rental premises. Landlord specifically disclaims any implied or express warranties that the building, common areas or Tenant's premises will have any higher or improved air quality standards than any other rental property. Landlord cannot and does not warrant or promise that the rental premises or common areas will be free from secondhand smoke. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord's ability to police, monitor, or enforce the agreements of this Addendum is dependent in significant part on voluntary compliance by Tenant and Tenant's guests. Tenants with respiratory ailments, allergies, or any other physical or mental condition relating to smoke are put on notice that Landlord does not assume any higher duty of care to enforce this Addendum than any other landlord obligation under the lease.
8. Effect on Current Tenants. Tenant acknowledges that current tenants residing in the complex under a prior lease may not be immediately subject to the No-Smoking Policy. As current tenants move out, or enter into new leases, the smoke-free policy will become effective for their unit or the new leases as permitted by law. The building will continue to transition to a full Non-smoking building, until one hundred percent of the rental units are in compliance with the No-Smoking Policy.

Disclosure of Information on Lead-Based Paint and Lead-Based Paint Hazards

Lead Warning Statement

Housing built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint. Lead from paint, paint chips, and dust can pose health hazards if not taken care of properly. Lead exposure is especially harmful to young children and pregnant women. Before renting pre-1978 housing, landlords must disclose the presence of known lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards in the dwelling. Tenants must also receive a Federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention.

FIRE SAFETY PLAN

PART II - FIRE EMERGENCY INFORMATION

THIS FIRE SAFETY PLAN IS INTENDED TO HELP YOU AND THE MEMBERS OF YOUR HOUSEHOLD PROTECT YOURSELVES IN THE EVENT OF FIRE. THIS FIRE SAFETY PLAN CONTAINS:

- Basic fire prevention and fire preparedness measures that will reduce the risk of fire and maximize your safety in the event of a fire.
- Basic information about your building, including the type of construction, the different ways of exiting the building, and the types of fire safety systems it may have.
- Emergency fire safety and evacuation instructions in the event of fire in your building.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO READ THIS FIRE SAFETY PLAN AND TO DISCUSS IT WITH THE MEMBERS OF YOUR HOUSEHOLD. FIRE PREVENTION, PREPAREDNESS, AND AWARENESS CAN SAVE YOUR LIFE!

THE NEAREST FIRE ALARM BOX.

BASIC FIRE PREVENTION AND FIRE PREPAREDNESS MEASURES

These are fire safety tips that everybody should follow:

1. Every apartment should be equipped with at least one smoke detector. (All apartment buildings constructed after July 2009 are required to be equipped with multiple interconnected smoke alarms that sound throughout an apartment.) Check them periodically to make sure they work. Most smoke detection can be tested by pressing the test button. Replace the batteries in the spring and fall when you move your clocks forward or back an hour, and whenever a smoke detector chirps to signal that its battery is low. The smoke detector should be replaced on a regular basis in accordance with the manufacturer's recommendation, but at least once every ten years.
2. Carelessly handled or discarded cigarettes are the leading cause of fire deaths. Never smoke in bed or when you are drowsy, and be especially careful when smoking on a sofa. Be sure that you completely extinguish every cigarette in an ashtray that is deep and won't tip over. Never leave a lit or smoldering cigarette on furniture.
3. Matches and lighters can be deadly in the hands of children. Store them out of reach of children and teach them about the danger of fire.
4. Do not leave cooking unattended. Keep stove tops clean and free of items that can catch on fire. Before you go to bed, check your kitchen to ensure that your oven is off and any coffeepot or teapot is unplugged.
5. Never overload electrical outlets. Replace any electrical cord that is cracked or frayed. Never run extension cords under rugs. Use only power strips with circuit breakers.
6. Keep all doorways and windows leading to fire escapes free of obstructions, and report to the owner any obstructions or accumulations of rubbish in the hallways, stairwells, fire escapes or other means of egress.
7. Install window gates only if it is absolutely necessary for security reasons. Install only approved window gates. Do not install window gates with key locks. A delay in finding or using the key could cost lives. Maintain the window gate's opening device so it operates smoothly. Familiarize yourself and the members of your household with the operation of the window gate.
8. Familiarize yourself and members of your household with the location of all stairwells, fire escapes and other means of egress.
9. With the members of your household, prepare an emergency escape route to use in the event of a fire in the building. Choose a meeting place a safe distance from your building where you should all meet in case you get separated during a fire.
10. Exercise care in the use and placement of fresh cut decorative greens, such as Christmas trees and holiday wreaths. If possible, keep them planted or in water. Do not place them in public hallways or where they might block egress from your apartment if they catch on fire. Keep them away from any flame, including fireplaces. Do not keep for extended period of time; as they dry, decorative greens become easily combustible.

BUILDING INFORMATION

Building Construction:

In a fire emergency, the decision to leave or to stay in your apartment will depend in part on the type of building you are in.

Residential buildings built before 1968 are generally classified either as "fireproof" or "non-fireproof." Residential buildings built in or after 1968 are generally classified either as "combustible" or "non-combustible." The type of building construction generally depends on the size and height of the building.

A "non-combustible" or "fireproof" building is a building whose structural components (the supporting elements of the building, such as steel or reinforced concrete beams and floors) are constructed of materials that do not burn or are resistant to fire and therefore, will not contribute to the spread of the fire. In such buildings, fires are more likely to be contained in the apartment or space in which they start and less likely to spread inside the building walls to other apartments and floors. THIS DOES NOT MEAN THAT THE BUILDING IS IMMUNE TO FIRE. While the structural components of the building may not catch fire, all of the contents of the ...personal belongings) may catch on fire and generate flame, heat and large amounts of smoke, which can travel throughout the building, especially if apartment or stairwell doors are left open.

...building has structural components (such as wood) that will burn if exposed to fire and can contribute to the spread of the fire. In such buildings, the fire can spread inside the building walls to other apartments and floors, in addition to the flame, heat and smoke that can be generated by the burning of the contents of the building.

Be sure to check Part I (Building Information Section) of this fire safety plan to see what type of building you are in.

Means of Egress

All residential buildings have at least one means of egress (way of exiting the building), and must have at least two. There are several different types of egress:

Interior Stairs: All buildings have stairs leading to the street level. These stairs may be enclosed or unenclosed. Unenclosed stairwells (stairs that are not separated from the hallways by walls and doors) do not prevent the spread of flame, heat and smoke. Since flame, heat and smoke generally rise, unenclosed stairwells may not ensure safe egress in the event of a fire on a lower floor. Enclosed stairs are more likely to permit safe egress from the building, if the doors are kept closed. It is important to get familiar with the means of egress available in your building.

Exterior Stairs: Some buildings provide access to the apartments by means of stairs and corridors that are outdoors. The fact that they are outdoors and do not trap heat and smoke enhances their safety in the event of a fire, provided that they are not obstructed.

Fire Tower Stairs: These are generally enclosed stairwells in a "tower" separated from the building by air shafts open to the outside. The open air shafts allow heat and smoke to escape from the building.

Fire Escapes: Many older buildings are equipped with a fire escape on the outside of the building, which is accessed through a window or balcony. Fire escapes are considered a "secondary" or alternative means of egress, and are to be used if the primary means of egress (stairwells) cannot be safely used to exit the building because they are obstructed by flame, heat or smoke.

Exits: Most buildings have more than one exit. In addition to the main entrance to the building, there may be separate side exits, rear exits, basement exits, roof exits and exits to the street from stairwells. Some of these exits may have alarms. Not all of these exits may lead to the street. Roof exits may or may not allow access to adjoining buildings.

Be sure to review Part I (Building Information Section) of this fire safety plan and familiarize yourself with the different means of egress from your building.

Fire Sprinkler Systems

A fire sprinkler system is a system of pipes and sprinkler heads that when triggered by the heat of a fire automatically discharges water that extinguishes the fire. The sprinkler system will continue to discharge water until it is turned off. When a sprinkler system activates, an alarm is sounded.

Sprinkler systems are very effective at preventing fire from spreading beyond the room in which it starts. However, the fire may still generate smoke, which can travel throughout the building.

Apartment buildings constructed before March 1999 were generally not required to have fire sprinkler systems. Some apartment buildings are equipped with sprinkler systems, but only in compacted chutes and rooms or boiler rooms. All apartment buildings constructed after March 1999 are required by law to be equipped with fire sprinkler systems throughout the building.

Be sure to review Part I (Building Information Section) of this fire safety plan to learn whether your building is equipped with fire sprinkler systems.

Interior Fire Alarm Systems

Although generally not required, some residential buildings are equipped with interior fire alarm systems that are designed to warn building occupants of a fire in the building. Interior fire alarm systems generally consist of a panel located in a lobby or basement, with manual pull stations located near the main entrance and by each stairwell door. Interior fire alarm systems are usually manually activated (must be pulled by hand) and do not automatically transmit a signal to the Fire Department, so a telephone call must still be made to 911 or the Fire Department dispatcher. Do not assume that the Fire Department has been notified because you hear a fire alarm or smoke detector sounding in the building.

Be sure to review Part I (Building Information Section) of this fire safety plan to learn whether your building is equipped with an interior fire alarm system and whether the alarm is transmitted to the Fire Department, and familiarize yourself with the location of the manual pull stations and how to activate them in the event of a fire.

Public Address Systems

Although generally not required, some residential buildings are equipped with public address systems that enable voice communications from a central location, usually in the building lobby. Public address systems are different from building intercoms, and usually consist of loudspeakers in building hallways and/or stairwells.

Starting in July 2009, residential buildings that are more than 125 feet in height are required by law to be equipped with a one way voice communication system that will enable Fire Department personnel to make announcements from the lobby to building occupants in their apartments or in building stairwells.

Be sure to review Part I (Building Information Section) of this fire safety plan to learn whether your building is equipped with a public address system.

EMERGENCY FIRE SAFETY AND EVACUATION INSTRUCTIONS

IN THE EVENT OF A FIRE, FOLLOW THE DIRECTIONS OF FIRE DEPARTMENT PERSONNEL. HOWEVER, THERE MAY BE EMERGENCY SITUATIONS IN WHICH YOU MAY BE REQUIRED TO DECIDE ON A COURSE OF ACTION TO PROTECT YOURSELF AND THE OTHER MEMBERS OF YOUR HOUSEHOLD.

THIS FIRE SAFETY PLAN IS INTENDED TO ASSIST YOU IN SELECTING THE SAFEST COURSE OF ACTION IN SUCH AN EMERGENCY. PLEASE NOTE THAT NO FIRE SAFETY PLAN CAN ACCOUNT FOR ALL OF THE POSSIBLE FACTORS AND CHANGING CONDITIONS; YOU WILL HAVE TO DECIDE FOR YOURSELF WHAT IS THE SAFEST COURSE OF ACTION UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES.

General Emergency Fire Safety Instructions

- Stay calm. Do not panic. Notify the Fire Department as soon as possible. Firefighters will be on the scene of a fire within minutes of receiving an alarm.
- Because flame, heat and smoke rise, generally a fire on a floor below your apartment presents a greater threat to your safety than a fire on a floor above your apartment.
- Do not overestimate your ability to put out a fire. Most fires cannot be easily or safely extinguished. Do not attempt to put the fire out once it begins to quickly spread. If you attempt to put a fire out, make sure you have a clear path of retreat from the room.
- If you decide to exit the building during a fire, close all doors as you exit to confine the fire. Never use the elevator. It could trap you between floors or take you to where the fire is.
- Heat, smoke and gases emitted by burning materials can quickly choke you. If you are caught in a heavy smoke condition, get down on the floor and crawl. Take short breaths, breathing through your nose.
- If your clothes catch fire, don't run. Stop where you are, drop to the ground, cover your face with your hands to protect your face and lungs and roll over to smother the flames.

Evacuation Instructions If The Fire Is In Your Apartment (All Types of Building Construction)

- Close the door to the room where the fire is, and leave the apartment.
- Make sure EVERYONE leaves the apartment with you.
- Take your keys.
- Close, but do not lock, the apartment door.
- Alert people on your floor by knocking on their doors on your way to the exit.
- Use the nearest stairwell to exit the building.
- DO NOT USE THE ELEVATOR.
- Call 911 once you reach a safe location. Do not assume the fire has been reported unless firefighters are on the scene.
- Meet the members of your household at a predetermined location outside the building. Notify responding firefighters if anyone is unaccounted for.

Evacuation Instructions If The Fire Is Not In Your Apartment

"NON-COMBUSTIBLE" OR "FIREPROOF" BUILDINGS:

- Stay inside your apartment and listen for instructions from firefighters unless conditions become dangerous.
- If you must exit your apartment, first feel the apartment door and doorknob for heat. If they are not hot, open the door slightly and check the hallway for smoke, heat or fire.
- If you can safely exit your apartment, follow the instructions above for a fire in your apartment.
- If you cannot safely exit your apartment or building, call 911 and tell them your address, floor, apartment number and the number of people in your apartment.
- Seal the doors to your apartment with wet towels or sheets, and seal air ducts or other openings where smoke may enter.
- Open windows a few inches at top and bottom unless flames and smoke are coming from below. Do not break any windows.
- If conditions in the apartment appear life-threatening, open a window and wave a towel or sheet to attract the attention of firefighters.
- If smoke conditions worsen before help arrives, get down on the floor and take short breaths through your nose. If possible, retreat to a balcony or terrace away from the source of the smoke, heat or fire.

"COMBUSTIBLE" OR "NON-FIREPROOF" BUILDING:

- Feel your apartment door and doorknob for heat. If they are not hot, open the door slightly and check the hallway for smoke, heat or fire.
- Exit your apartment and building if you can safely do so, following the instructions above for a fire in your apartment.
- If the hallway or stairwell is not safe because of smoke, heat or fire and you have access to a fire escape, use it to exit the building. Proceed cautiously on the fire escape and always carry or hold onto small children.
- If you cannot use the stairs or fire escape, call 911 and tell them your address, floor, apartment number and the number of people in your apartment.
 - Seal the doors to your apartment with wet towels or sheets, and seal air ducts or other openings where smoke may enter.
 - Open windows a few inches at top and bottom unless flames and smoke are coming from below. Do not break any windows.
 - If conditions in the apartment appear life-threatening, open a window and wave a towel or sheet to attract the attention of firefighters.
 - If smoke conditions worsen before help arrives, get down on the floor and take short breaths through your nose. If possible, retreat to a balcony or terrace away from the source of the smoke, heat or fire.

INTRODUCTION:

This Rider is issued by the New York State Division of Housing and Community Renewal ("DHCR"), pursuant to the Rent Stabilization Law ("RSL") and Rent Stabilization Code ("RSC"). It generally informs tenants and owners about their basic rights and responsibilities under the RSL.

This Rider does not contain every rule applicable to rent stabilized apartments. It is only informational and its provisions are not part of and do not modify the lease. However, it must be attached as an addendum to the lease. It does not otherwise replace or modify more exact or complete sections of the RSL, the RSC, any order of DHCR, or any order of the New York City Rent Guidelines Board that govern this tenancy. The owner must comply with all applicable state, federal and local fair housing laws and nondiscrimination requirements.

The Appendix lists organizations which can provide assistance to tenants and owners who have inquiries, complaints or requests relating to subjects covered in this Rider.

Tenants should keep a copy of this Rider and of any lease they sign and carefully review the summary of lawful rent increases described. Any tenant who believes that the rent they are being charged may be unlawful may consider requesting a rent history of their apartment from DHCR (www.hcr.ny.gov). After reviewing the rent history, the tenant can make an informed decision whether to file form RA-89 "Tenant's Complaint of Rent and/or Other Specific Overcharges in a Rent Stabilized Apartment."

1. RENEWAL LEASES

The owner is entitled to increase the rent when a tenant renews a lease ("renewal lease"). Each year, effective October 1, the New York City Rent Guidelines Board sets the percentage of maximum permissible increase over the immediately preceding September 30th rent for leases which will begin during the year for which the guidelines order is in effect. The date a lease starts determines which guidelines order applies.

Guidelines orders provide increases for Renewal Leases. The renewing tenant has the choice of the length of the lease. Different percentages are set for rent increases for leases of one or two years. For additional information see DHCR Fact Sheet #26.

2. VACANCY LEASES

The owner is entitled to increase the previous legal regulated rent when a new tenant enters into a lease for the first time and this is referred to as a vacancy lease. The tenant may choose between a one or two-year lease term. The allowable increase is set by the Rent Guidelines Board. However, no more than one guideline board increase may be added per guideline year. Lawful Major Capital Improvement and Individual Apartment Improvements may also be added to the rent.

3. SECURITY DEPOSITS

An owner may collect a security deposit no greater than one month's rent. When the rent is increased, the owner may charge an additional amount to bring the security deposit up to the full amount of the increased rent to which the owner is entitled. If a preferential rent is being charged, the amount of the security deposit collected can be no higher than the preferential rent.

A security deposit must be deposited in an interest bearing trust account in a banking organization in New York State. The tenant has the option of applying the interest to the rent, leaving the interest in the bank or receiving the interest annually. For additional information see DHCR Fact Sheet #9.

4. OTHER RENT INCREASES

In addition to guideline increases, the rent may be permanently increased based upon the following:

- (A) Individual Apartment Improvements (IAI) - When an owner installs a new appliance or makes an improvement to an apartment the owner may be entitled to an IAI rent increase. Tenant written consent for the improvement and rent increase is only required if the apartment is occupied by a tenant. It is not required for a vacant apartment.

In buildings with 35 units or less, the increase is limited to 1/168th of the cost of the improvement. In buildings with more than 35 units, the increase is limited to 1/180th of the cost of the improvement.

No more than three IAI increases can be collected in a 15-year period and the total cost of the improvements eligible for a rent increase calculation cannot exceed $15,000. Work must be done by a licensed contractor and there is a prohibition on common ownership between the contractor and the owner. The apartment must be free and clear of any outstanding hazardous and immediately hazardous violations. The written consent provided by the tenant in occupancy must be on a DHCR form. A translated version in the top 6 languages spoken other than English will be made available for review on the DHCR website. Owners are required to maintain supporting documentation and photographs for all IAI installations, which commencing June 14, 2020 will be submitted to and stored by DHCR in an electronic format. The IAI rent increase is temporary, as it must be removed from the rent in 30 years and the legal rent must be adjusted at that time for guideline increases that were previously compounded on a rent that included the IAI.

The DHCR Lease Rider offered to vacancy lease tenants contain notification to the tenant of the right to request from the owner by certified mail Individual Apartment Improvements (IAI's) supporting documentation at the time the lease is offered or within 60 days of the execution of the lease. The owner shall provide such documentation within 30 days of that request in person or by certified mail. A tenant who is not provided with that documentation upon demand may file form RA-90 "Tenant's Complaint of Owner's Failure to Renew Lease and/or Failure to Furnish a copy of a Signed Lease" to receive a DHCR Order that directs the furnishing of the IAI supporting documentation. (Refer to Rider Section 1, Individual Apartment Improvements.)

IAI rent increases cannot be collected if a DHCR order reducing rent for decreased services is in effect and has an earlier effective date. It can be collected prospectively on the effective date of a DHCR order restoring the rent.

(B) Major Capital Improvements (MCI) - An owner is permitted a rental increase for building-wide major capital improvements, such as the replacement of a boiler or new plumbing. Major Capital Improvement rent increases are prohibited in buildings that contain 35% or fewer rent regulated apartments. The owner must file an application with DHCR and all supporting documentation is audited.

DHCR may issue an order denying the increase or granting it in part or in whole and serve the order on the owner and all tenants in the building. The rent increase approved in the DHCR order is collectible prospectively, on the first day of the first month 60 days after issuance. There are no retroactive rent increases. The collection of the increase is limited to a 2% cap/years phase-in. The 2% cap also applies to MCI rent increases not yet collected that were approved on or after June 14, 2012. Upon vacancy, the remaining balance of the increase can be added to the legal rent. In buildings with 35 or fewer units, the cost is amortized over a 12-year period. In buildings with more than 35 units, the cost is amortized over 12 1/2 years. The building must be free and clear of any outstanding hazardous and immediately hazardous violations. The MCI rent increase is temporary and it must be removed from the rent in 30 years and the legal rent must be adjusted at that time for guideline increases that were previously compounded on a rent that included the MCI rent increase.

Vacancy lease tenants are to be notified in their lease about pending MCI applications.

(C) Hardship - An owner may apply to increase the rents of all rent stabilized apartments based on hardship when:

1. the rents are not sufficient to enable the owner to maintain approximately the same average annual net income for a current three-year period as compared with the annual net income which prevailed on the average over the period 1968 through 1970, or for the first three years of operation if the building was completed since 1968, or for the first three years the owner owned the building if the owner cannot obtain records for the years 1968-1970; or
2. where the annual gross rental income does not exceed the annual operating expenses by a sum equal to at least 5% of such gross income.

If an application for a rent increase based on a major capital improvement or hardship is granted, the owner may charge the increase during the term of an existing lease only if the lease contains a clause specifically authorizing the owner to do so.

5. RENT REGISTRATION

(A) Initial

An owner must register an apartment's rent and services with DHCR when the building first becomes subject to the RSL and in adherence to any related regulatory agreements and/or tax benefit programs.

(B) Annual

The annual registration must be filed with DHCR no earlier than April 1st of each year. At the time of such filing, the owner must provide each tenant with the tenant's copy.

(C) Penalties

Failure to register may result in such penalties, rent reductions, and other remedies as permitted by law.

6. RENEWAL LEASES

A tenant has a right to a renewal lease, with certain exceptions (see Provision 10 of this Rider, "When An Owner May Refuse To Renew A Lease").

At least 90 days and not more than 150 days before the expiration of a lease, the owner is required to notify the tenant in writing that the lease will soon expire. That notice must also offer the tenant the choice of a one or two-year lease at the permissible guidelines increase. After receiving the notice, the tenant always has 60 days to accept the owner's offer, whether or not the offer is made within the above time period, or even beyond the expiration of the lease term.

Any renewal lease, except for the amount of rent and duration of its term, is required to be on the same terms and conditions as the expired lease, and a fully executed copy of the same must be provided to the tenant within 30 days from the owner's receipt of the renewal lease or renewal form signed by the tenant. If the owner does not return a copy of such fully executed Renewal Lease Form to the tenant within 30 days of receiving the signed renewal lease from the tenant, the tenant is responsible for payment of the new lease rent and may file a "Tenant's Complaint of Owner's Failure to Renew Lease and/or Failure to Furnish a Copy of a Signed Lease" (DHCR Form RA-90). DHCR shall order the owner to furnish the copy of the renewal lease or form. If the owner does not comply within 20 days of such order, the owner shall not be entitled to collect a rent guideline increase until the lease or form is provided.

It is illegal for an owner to require a rent stabilized tenant to provide immigration status information or a Social Security number as a condition to renewing the lease. (For additional information on the rights of foreign-born tenants see DHCR Fact Sheet #45.)

If a tenant wishes to remain in occupancy beyond the expiration of the lease, the tenant may not refuse to sign a proper renewal lease. If the tenant does refuse to sign a proper renewal lease, he or she may be subject to an eviction proceeding.

An owner may add to a renewal lease the following clauses even if such clauses were not included in the tenant's prior lease:

- (A) the rent may be adjusted by the owner on the basis of Rent Guidelines Board or DHCR Orders;
- (B) if the owner or the lease grants permission to sublet or assign, the owner may charge a sublet allowance for a sub-tenant or assignee, provided the prime lease is a renewal lease. However, this sublet allowance may be charged even if such clause is not added to the renewal lease. (Subletting is discussed in Provision 9 of this Rider);
- (C) (1) if the building in which the apartment is located is receiving 421-a (1-15) tax benefits, a clause may be added providing for an annual or other periodic rent increase over the initial rent at an average rate of not more than 2.2% of the amount of such initial rent per annum not to exceed nine 2.2 percent increases. Such charge shall not become part of the legal regulated rent; however, the cumulative 2.2 percent increases charged prior to the termination of tax benefits may continue to be collected as a separate charge;
- (2) provisions for rent increases if authorized under Section 423 of the Real Property Tax Law; a clause may be added to provide for an annual or other periodic rent increase over the legal regulated rent if authorized by Section 423 of the Real Property Tax Law.

7. RENEWAL LEASE SUCCESSION RIGHTS

In the event that the tenant has permanently vacated the apartment at the time of the renewal lease offer, family members who have lived with the tenant in the apartment as a primary residence for at least two years immediately prior to such permanent vacating (one year for family members who are senior citizens and disabled persons), or from the inception of the tenancy or commencement of the relationship, if for less than such periods, are entitled to a renewal lease.

"family member" includes the spouse, son, daughter, stepson, stepdaughter, father, mother, stepfather, stepmother, brother, sister, grandfather, grandmother, grandson, granddaughter, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law or daughter-in-law of the tenant.

"family member" may also include any other person living with the tenant in the apartment as a primary residence who can prove emotional and financial commitment and interdependence between such person and the tenant. Examples of evidence which is considered in determining whether such emotional and financial commitment and interdependence existed are set forth in the Rent Stabilization Code. Renewal lease succession rights are also discussed in detail in DHCR Fact Sheet #36.

8. SERVICES

Written notification to the owner or managing agent should be given but is NOT required, before filing a complaint in service complaint with DHCR. Owners who have not received prior written notification from the tenant will, however, be given additional time to respond to a complaint filed with DHCR. Applications based on a lack of heat or hot water must be accompanied by a report from the appropriate city agency.

All emergency conditions do not require prior written notification. These include but are not limited to: vacate order (5 day notification), fire (5 day notification), no water apartment wide, no operable toilet, collapsed or collapsing ceiling or walls, collapsing floor, no heat/hot water apartment wide (violation required), broken or inoperative apartment front door lock, all elevators inoperative, no electricity apartment wide, window to fire escape (does not open), water leak (cascading water, soaking electrical fixtures), window-glass broken (not cracked), broken/unusable fire escapes, air conditioner broken (summer season). Complaints to DHCR on the appropriate DHCR form that cite any of these emergency conditions will be treated as first priority and will be processed as quickly as possible. It is recommended that tenants use a separate DHCR form for any problematic conditions that are not on this emergency condition list.

Certain conditions, examples of which are set forth in the Rent Stabilization Code, which have only a minimal impact on tenants, do not affect the use and enjoyment of the premises, and may exist despite regular maintenance of services. These conditions do not rise to the level of a failure to maintain required services. The passage of time during which a disputed service was not provided without complaint may be considered in determining whether a condition is de minimis. For this purpose, the passage of 4 years or more will be considered presumptive evidence that the condition is de minimis.

The amount of any rent reduction ordered by DHCR shall be reduced by any credit, abatement or offset in rent which the tenant has received pursuant to Sec. 255-b of the Real Property Law ("Warranty of Habitability") that relates to one or more conditions covered by the DHCR Order. For additional information see DHCR Fact Sheets #0, #14 and #37.

9. SUBLETTING AND ASSIGNMENT

A tenant has the right to sublet his/her apartment, even if subletting is prohibited in the lease, provided that the tenant complies strictly with the provisions of Real Property Law Section 226-b. Tenants who do not comply with these requirements may be subject to eviction proceedings. Compliance with Section 226-b is not determined by DHCR, but by a court of competent jurisdiction. If a tenant in occupancy under a renewal lease sublets his/her apartment, the owner may temporarily increase the rent by the current rent guidelines board adjustment, regardless of whether the owner has increased the rent by the guidelines board amount within the prior twelve months. This charge may be passed on to the sub-tenant. However, upon termination of the sublease, the Legal Regulated Rent shall revert to the Legal Regulated Rent without such temporary increase. The rent increase is the allowance provided by the NYC Rent Guidelines Board available when the tenant's lease commenced, and it takes effect when the subletting takes place.

A tenant who sublets his/her apartment is entitled to charge the sub-tenant the rent permitted under the Rent Stabilization Law, and may charge a 10% surcharge payable to the tenant only if the apartment sublet is fully furnished with the tenant's furniture. Where the tenant charges the sub-tenant any additional rent above such surcharge and sublet allowance, if applicable, the tenant shall be required to pay to the sub-tenant a penalty of three times the rent overcharge, and may also be required to pay interest and attorney's fees. The tenant may also be subject to an eviction proceeding.

Assignment of Leases

In an assignment, a tenant transfers the entire remainder of his or her lease to another person (the assignee), and gives up all of his/her rights to reoccupy the apartment.

the provisions of Real Property Law Section 226-b, a tenant may not assign his/her lease without the written consent of the owner, unless the lease expressly provides otherwise. If the owner consents to the assignment of the lease, the owner may increase the rent as if the assignee were entering into a new lease following permanent vacancy. Such increase shall remain part of the Legal Regulated Rent for any subsequent renewal lease.

An owner is not required to have reasonable grounds to refuse to consent to the assignment. However, if the owner unreasonably refuses consent, the owner must release the tenant from the remainder of the lease, if the tenant, upon 30 days' notice to the owner, requests to be released.

If the owner refuses to consent to an assignment and does have reasonable grounds for withholding consent, the tenant cannot assign and the owner is not required to release the tenant from the lease. For additional information see DHCR Fact Sheet #7.

10. WHEN AN OWNER MAY REFUSE TO RENEW A LEASE

As long as a tenant pays the lawful rent to which the owner is entitled, the tenant, except for the specific grounds stated in the Rent Stabilization Law and Rent Stabilization Code, is entitled to remain in the apartment. An owner may not harass a tenant by engaging in an intentional course of conduct intended to make the tenant move from his/her apartment.

Below are listed some but not all grounds for eviction:

Without DHCR consent, the owner may refuse to renew a lease and bring an eviction action in Civil Court at the expiration of the lease on any of the following grounds:

- (A) the tenant refuses to sign a proper renewal lease offered by the owner;
- (B) the owner, because of immediate and compelling necessity, seeks to recover the apartment in good faith for personal use and occupancy as a primary residence or for the personal use and occupancy as a primary residence of members of the owner's immediate family; Note that the owner is only permitted to do this for one apartment in a building subject to regulation;
- (C) the tenant does not occupy the apartment as his or her primary residence. The owner must notify the tenant in writing at least 90 and not more than 150 days prior to the expiration of the lease term of the owner's intention not to renew the lease.

With DHCR consent, the owner may refuse to renew a lease upon any of the following grounds:

- (A) the owner seeks in good faith to recover possession of the apartment for the purpose of demolishing the building and constructing a new building; or
- (B) the owner requires the apartment or the land for the owner's own use in connection with a business which the owner owns and operates.

A tenant will be served with a copy of the owner's application and has a right to object. If the owner's application is granted, the owner may bring an eviction action in Civil Court.

11. EVICTION WHILE THE LEASE IS IN EFFECT

The owner may bring an action in Civil Court to evict a tenant during the term of the lease for the grounds stated in the Rent Stabilization Law and Rent Stabilization Code.

Below are listed some but not all grounds for eviction:

- (A) does not pay rent;
- (B) is violating a substantial obligation of the tenancy;
- (C) is committing or permitting a nuisance;
- (D) is illegally using or occupying the apartment;
- (E) has unreasonably refused the owner access to the apartment for the purpose of making necessary repairs or improvements required by law or authorized by DHCR, or for the purpose of inspection or showing. The tenant must be given at least 5 days' notice of any such inspection or showing, to be arranged at the mutual tenant cannot be required to permit access for inspection or showing if such requirement would be contrary to the lease.

Tenants are cautioned that causing violations of health, safety, or sanitation standards of housing maintenance laws, or permitting such violations by a member of the family or of the household or by a guest, may be the basis for a court action by the owner.

12. COOPERATIVE AND CONDOMINIUM CONVERSION

Tenants who do not purchase their apartments under a Non-Eviction Conversion Plan continue to be protected by Rent Stabilization. Conversions are regulated by the New York State Attorney General. Any cooperative or condominium conversion plan accepted for filing by the New York State Attorney General's Office will include specific information about tenant rights and protections. An informational booklet about the general subject of conversion is available from the New York State Attorney General's Office.

13. SENIOR CITIZENS AND DISABILITY RENT INCREASE EXEMPTION PROGRAM

Tenants or their spouses who are 62 years of age, or older, or are persons with a disability, and whose household income level does not exceed the established income level may qualify for an exemption from guideline rent increases, hardship rent increases, major capital improvement rent increases and rent reductions for DHCR approved electrical sub-metering conversions. This exemption will only be for a portion of the increase which causes the tenant's rent to exceed one-third of the "net" household income, and is not available for increases based on new services or equipment within the apartment. Questions concerning the Senior Citizen Rent Increase Exemption (SCRIE) program and the Disability Rent Increase Exemption (DRIE) program can be addressed to the New York City Department of Finance.

When a senior citizen or person with a disability is granted a rent increase exemption, the owner may obtain a real estate tax credit from New York City equal to the amount of the tenant's exemption. Notwithstanding any of the above, a senior citizen or person with a disability who receives a rent increase exemption is still required to pay a full month's rent as a security deposit. For additional information see DHCR Fact Sheet # 20 and # 21.

14. SPECIAL CASES AND EXCEPTIONS

Some special rules relating to stabilized rents and required services may apply to newly constructed buildings subject to regulatory agreement and/or which receive tax abatement or exemption, and to buildings rehabilitated under certain New York City, New York State, federal financing, mortgage insurance programs, or project based vouchers. The supervising government agency that sets initial legal rents may also set preferential rents. The rules mentioned in this Rider do not necessarily apply to rent stabilized apartments located in hotels or permanent housing accommodations with government contracted services to vulnerable individuals or individuals with disabilities who are or were homeless or at risk of homelessness. A separate Hotel Rights Notice informing permanent hotel tenants and owners of their basic rights and responsibilities under the Rent Stabilization Law is available from DHCR.

15. AIR CONDITIONER SURCHARGES

Owners are authorized to collect surcharges from rent stabilized tenants for the use of air conditioners. DHCR issues an annual update to an Operational Bulletin in which the lawful surcharges are established for the year. One surcharge amount is established for tenants in buildings where electricity is included in the rent. Another surcharge is established for tenants who pay for their own electricity. Such surcharges shall not become part of the legal regulated rent. (See Operational Bulletin 84-4 and Fact Sheet # 27).

16. SURCHARGES FOR TENANT INSTALLED WASHING MACHINES, DRYERS AND DISHWASHERS

Unless a lease provides otherwise, owners are not required to allow tenants to install washing machines, dryers or dishwashers. Where a tenant requests permission from the owner to install such appliance or appliances, whether permanently installed or portable, and the owner consents, the owner may collect a surcharge or surcharges. DHCR issues periodic updates to an Operational Bulletin that sets forth surcharges for washing machines, dryers and dishwashers. One set of surcharges is established for tenants in buildings where electricity is included in the rent. Another set of surcharges is established for tenants who pay their own electricity. Such surcharges shall not become part of the rent. (See Operational Bulletin 2003-1).

vacancy rent is a rent which an owner agrees to charge that is lower than the legal regulated rent that the owner could lawfully collect. The legal regulated rent is required to be set into the vacancy lease and all subsequent preferential and legal rents to be raised at the time of a lease renewal additionally requires that any preferential rent already being collected must continue to be offered at the time of a lease renewal. The rent increase to be collected at a lease renewal on the preferential rent must be set by applying the applicable guideline increase to the preferential rent. The legal rent cannot be collected until a vacancy occurs and can be offered to the next new vacancy lease tenant, provided that both the legal rent and the preferential rent are listed in the initial lease offering the preferential rent and every subsequent lease offering the preferential rent until the vacancy. Exceptions to these requirements may apply to preferential rents established by regulatory agreements.

19. FEES

There are certain fees that owners may charge tenants separate and apart from the rent for the apartment. However, fees of any kind do not become part of the legal rent or preferential rent and cannot be added to it for the purpose of calculating lease renewal increases.

Lawful fees:

Late fees where a clause in the initial vacancy lease allows for them to be charged by a certain specific date and the late fees are no more than the lesser of $50 or 3% of the monthly rent currently being charged and collected. Preferential rent, which may also be referred to as "on-time rent," that are conditioned on prompt payment of rent or terminate upon late payment of rent are not allowed.

Legal fees can only be collected if ordered by a judge in court.

Reasonable fees for a background check when applying to be a tenant which cannot exceed $20 per tenant subject to the background check.

Fees for window guards ($10 per guard) are detailed in DHCR Fact Sheet # 25.

Fees for smoke alarms, carbon monoxide detectors and natural gas detectors are established by the local municipality.

Actual Fees/charges incurred for insufficient funds for a tenant's rent check that did not clear (bounced checks), if this was provided for in the initial lease.

Fees imposed by the NYC agency (Ex-HPD, HDC) that has oversight authority pursuant to a regulatory agreement.

Fees for Air Conditioners and Tenant-installed Washing Machines, Dryers and Dishwashers are detailed in DHCR's Operational Bulletin 84-4 and DHCR Operational Bulletin 2005-1.

Fees for Sub-Metering or other utility services. Fees for Sub-Metering are detailed in DHCR Operational Bulletin 2014-1.

Unlawful Fees:

Fees for background checks on rent stabilized tenants or occupancy.

Fees cannot be charged to the tenant for a background check on a prospective roommate or additional family member.

Pet security deposit or fees proposed for a service animal or that are in violation of fair housing law. Fees for owner installed air conditioner brackets are prohibited.

Fees including but not limited to damage fees, repair fees of any kind including those incurred for removal of municipal violations, painting fees, cleaning fees and other fees not established by or in excess of the amount allowed by the rent regulations or other municipal regulations are prohibited. Please note that the inappropriateness of imposing these fees through the lease may not necessarily prevent an owner from independently seeking other relief in court for objectionable conduct or damages.

The $20 fee that must be paid by owners to the municipality for each stabilized apartment can not be passed along as a fee to the tenant.

Tenants who have been billed for fees and/or surcharges that they may believe are unlawful or untimely, have the right to file a complaint of rent overcharge on DHCR form RA-89 and/or pursue remedies in court.

What Every Tenant Should Know About Indoor Allergens (Local Law 55 of 2018)

Allergens are things in the environment that make indoor air quality worse. They can cause asthma attacks or make asthma symptoms worse. Common indoor allergens, or triggers, include cockroaches and mice; mold and mildew; and chemicals with strong smells, like some cleaning products. Environmental and structural conditions, like leaks and cracks in walls often found in poorly maintained housing, lead to higher levels of allergens.

New York City law requires that landlords take steps to keep their tenants' homes free of pests and mold. This includes safely fixing the conditions that cause these problems. Tenants also play a role in preventing indoor allergens.

Tenants should:

- Keep homes clean and dry
- Place food in sealed containers, keep counters and sinks clean, and get rid of clutter such as newspapers and paper bags
- Use garbage cans with tight-fitting lids
- Take garbage and recycling out every day, and tie up garbage bags before putting them in compactor chutes
- Avoid using pesticides and chemicals with strong smells (e.g., cleaning products, air fresheners, etc.)
- Tell landlords right away if there are pests, water leaks, or holes or cracks in the walls and floors
- Let building staff into homes to make any needed repairs
- Call 311 if landlords do not fix the problem or if repair work is being done unsafely

If you are a tenant and you or your child has asthma, and there are pests or mold in your home, your doctor can request a free home environmental inspection for you through the New York City Health Department's Online Registry. Talk to your doctor or call 311 to learn more.

What Landlords Must Do to Keep Homes Free of Pests and Mold

New York City law requires that landlords of buildings with three or more apartments – or buildings of any size where a tenant has asthma – take steps to keep tenant homes free of pests and mold. This includes safely fixing the conditions that cause these problems.

Landlords must:

- Inspect every apartment and the building's common areas for cockroach and rodent infestations, mold and the conditions that lead to these hazards, at least once a year and more often if necessary. Landlords must also respond to tenant complaints or requests for an inspection.
- Use integrated pest management (IPM) practices to safely control pests and fix building-related issues that lead to pest problems.
 - ✓ Remove pest nests and thoroughly clean pest waste and other debris using a HEPA vacuum. Make sure to limit the spread of dust when cleaning.
 - ✓ Repair and seal any holes, gaps or cracks in walls, ceilings, floors, molding, base boards, around pipes and conduits, and around and within cabinets.
 - ✓ Attach door sweeps to all doors that lead to hallways, basements or outside.
 - ✓ Remove all water sources for pests by repairing drains, faucets and other plumbing materials that collect water or leak.
 - ✓ Use pesticides sparingly. If pesticides must be used to correct a violation, they must be applied by a New York State Department of Environmental Conservation-licensed pest professional.
- Remove indoor mold and safely fix the problems that cause mold.
 - ✓ Remove any standing water, and fix leaks or moisture conditions.
 - ✓ Move or cover furniture, and seal off doorways, ventilation ducts and other openings securely with plastic sheeting.
 - ✓ Gently spray the moldy area with soap or detergent and water before cleaning to limit the spread of dust.
 - ✓ Clean the work area with wet mops or HEPA vacuums before work starts, at the end of each day and after all repair work is completed.
 - ✓ Dry the cleaned area completely.
 - ✓ Throw away all cleaning-related waste in heavy-duty plastic bags and seal securely.
 - ✓ To clean 10 or more square feet of mold in a building with 10 or more apartments, landlords must hire a New York State Department of Labor-licensed mold assessor and remediator. Per New York City Administrative Code section 24-154 and New York State Labor Law Article 32, assessors and remediators must submit paperwork to the New York City Department of Environmental Protection.
- Make sure vacant apartments are thoroughly cleaned and free of pests and mold before a new tenant moves in.
- Provide a copy of this fact sheet and a notice with each tenant's lease that clearly states the landlord's and tenant's responsibilities to keep the building free of indoor allergens.
