I told the super to call NYPD. The placement of the speaker on the exterior windowsill is a lease violation and a violation of law. Your son's blasting music throughout the neighborhood for the past weekend and into today is serving no purpose other than multiple 311 calls to NYC. His behaviors are becoming increasingly erratic and more dangerous.

He has a speaker outside his window.
Can we please send him an email to remove it, that's not his property.

Thanks

Good morning. I wanted to let you know that there is a tenant in the building next to us that has been playing loud music out of the window for days now. On Sunday night it was all night long and last night until at least 2am. I'm not sure how to go about rectifying the situation. It's a major disturbance. Please let me know how to move forward. Thanks so much.

Sincerely,
Andrew Koch
