Angelique Sabia-Candero defends property owners, corporations and property management companies in a wide range of general liability matters.

Prior to joining Wilson and Elser, Angelique gained experience as a civil litigator specializing in medical malpractice defense.

While in law school, Angelique served as a judicial intern to the Honorable Justice Richard Lee Price in the New York State Supreme Court, Bronx County and interned with the NYC Public Advocate, Letitia James. In addition, Angelique held internships with the NYC Law Department's Tort Division and the NYC Housing Authority.

Wilson Elser

More than 800 attorneys strong, Wilson Elser serves clients of all sizes, across multiple industries and around the world. Wilson Elser has 41 strategically located offices in the United States and one in London. It is also a founding member of Legalign Global, a close alliance of four of the world's leading insurance law firms, created to assist companies doing business internationally. This depth and scale has made it one of the nation's most influential law firms, ranked in the Am Law 200 and 53rd in The National Law Journal's NLJ 500.
